Becoming A Child

This morning in my quiet time, I read the verse about becoming child-like in our faith, without that, the Bible says we won't see Heaven. Let's think about being like children. A child is trusting, the way our faith in God should be. The reading went on to say we need to be child-like in other ways too. Things I had not thought about before. How about things like our joy or zeal for life, the love of giving and the unconditional acceptance of others? Children have a knack for all of these things and we would do well to follow their example. Trust in our loving Heavenly Father, Joy for life, one day at a time. Sharing freely what we have with others and acceptance of others for who they are. These are tall orders, but with God's help we can do it and it helps to better understand the verse on becoming like a child and I sure want to make Heaven, don't you?

Psalms 7:17 I will praise the Lord according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.
